All members were present for our meeting from 3-4pm on Tuesday January 20th.

Accomplishments for the past week and plans for the upcoming week.

This past week, we divided up our team's roles, setup group chat via the GroupMe App message, shared contact information via email. In addition, we emailed Dr. Basu about him serving as our faculty advisor. He did not respond, so we reached out to Dr. Mina who suggested Dr. Rover. We then emailed Dr. Rover in order to setup a meeting time with her to see if she would be able to serve as our faculty advisor.

This upcoming week we plan to meet with Dr. Rover and contact our customer at VanCorp Corporation. We will also get setup on our website framework and meet together to plan other next steps.

Pending Issues

At this time, we do not have a faculty advisor which has made it impossible to meet with them. We reached out to Dr. Rover, and we will have to visit with her as soon as possible in order to take the next steps such as meeting with our client. We hope to resolve this issue this week.
