Weekly Summary

The goal this last week was to become familiar with the code, as well finish the design document. We also were able to schedule a meeting with VanGorp on the 25th to finally narrow down the desired feature set.

Meeting Notes

No meeting notes this week

Pending Issues

As mentioned above, we have a pending meeting with VanGorp on the 25th. This is to finally narrow down the exact feature set they are looking for.

Plans For Next Week

Our plans for this week are to begin coding the new version of the program. While doing so, we want to ensure that our source control is working correctly. Furthermore, we want to fully abide by all of our design standards.

Individual Contributions (This Week)

Austin Benson – Worked on design document, reviewed and submitted design document, analyzed current code base and developed strategies for storing design standards.

Nick Cervantes – Worked on design document. Began conversion of GWBASIC to QBASIC, and furthermore to Visual BASIC. Compiled weekly report.

Sean Finn – Created mockup prototype for next meeting with client, Researched some Visual Studio plugins to help us ensure coding format, standards, etc.

Evan Kroeger – Installed necessary Visual Studio plugins and began preparations for meeting with client. Brainstormed on best approach for our next major hurdle: proper coding of design standards.

Matt Petron – Worked on introduction, document scope, and testing sections of design document. Worked with room services to schedule a room for client meeting on March 25th.
